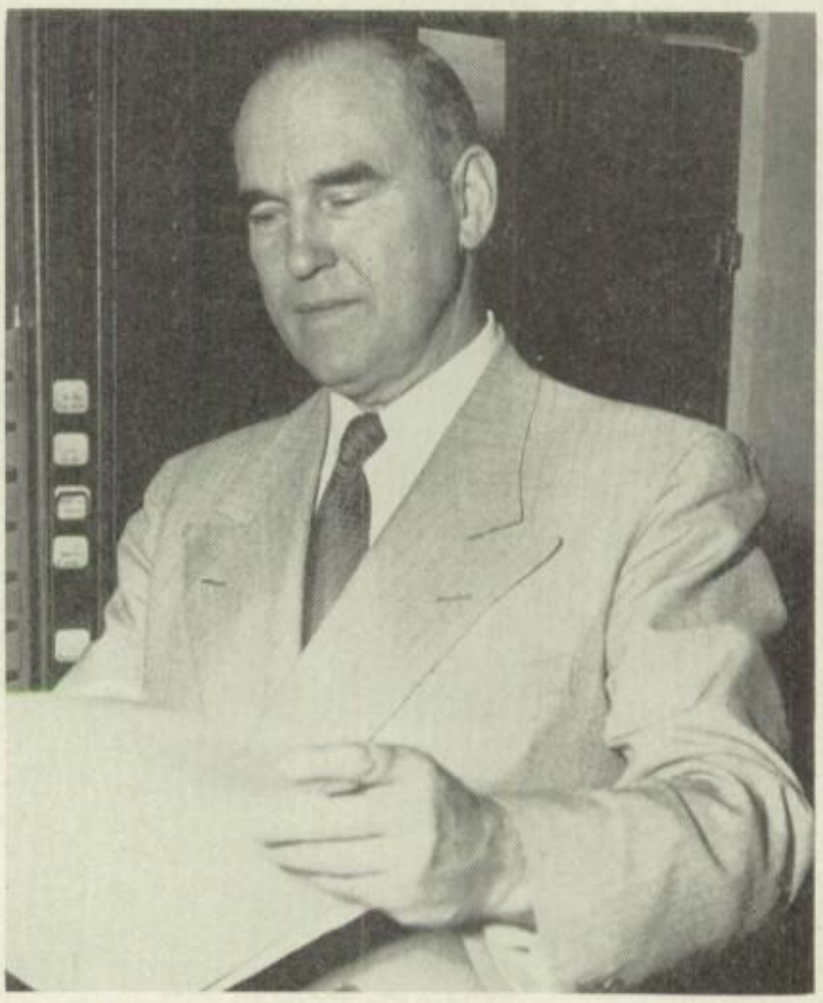
RUBY CALVERT

Dedication



PROF HANSEN

Enthusiastic, always friendly, Prof Hansen impresses everyone he meets with his winning personality. As a genial host to government and economics classes in Room 103, he has won a place in our hearts. As the energetic overseer of the Senior Magazine Campaign, he has inspired class after class to "go over the top." This year's Senior class showed the impact of his spirit by selling over eight thousand dollars worth of magazines!

Our friend, teacher, and leader, we thank you. . . .

MISS CALVERT

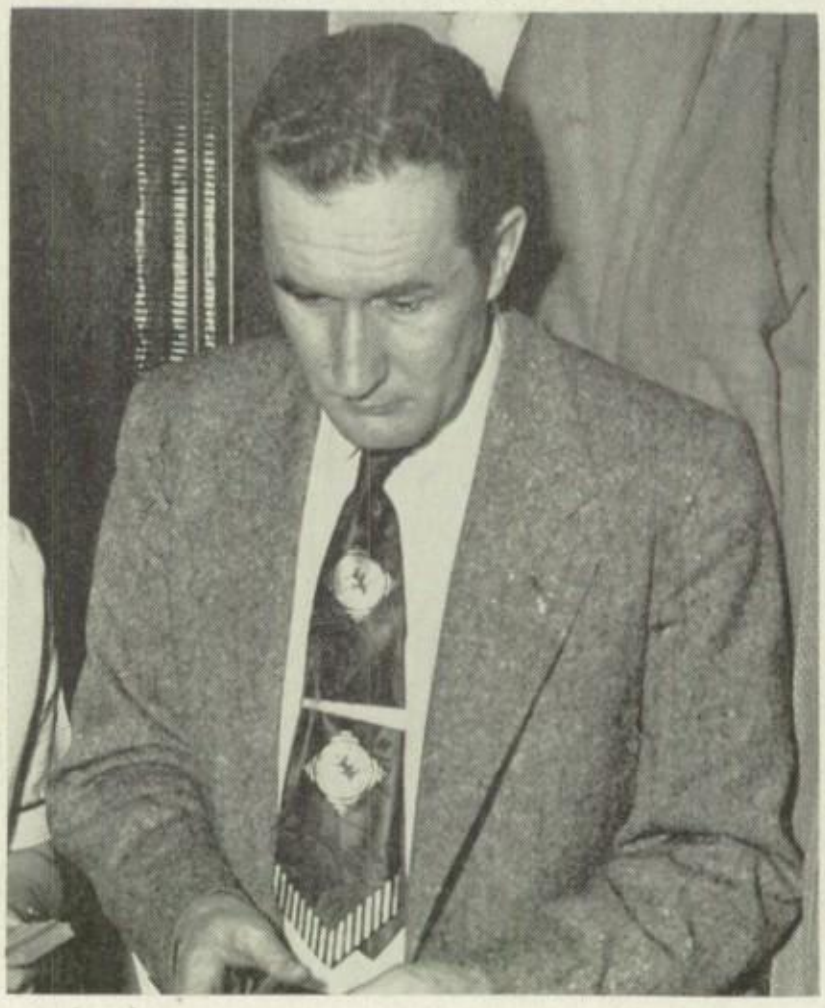
An astonished comment heard after this year's senior play was, "That was a professional performance! How do these high school people do it?" The players themselves know the answer; their success is due to one person, Miss Ruby Calvert. Dynamic, magnetic, and extremely enthused about her work and young people, Miss Calvert has made an outstanding record as a Speech teacher and Dramatics coach year after year.

For helping us produce an outstanding Senior play and for being such a fine class sponsor, we wish to thank you. . . .

MR. DAMSON

Being a family man, Mr. Damson has an understanding of young people. As a coach, he has worked with many boys, helping them develop into better citizens. Active in the Magazine Campaign, he handled many of the money problems and was instrumental in helping us smash all previous records. This, together with his supervision of the ticket sales for the Senior play, proved his worth as a Senior Class sponsor.

For all your time, patience, and help, we thank you. . . .



Mr. Walter W. Scott, Superintendent of Public Schools, Mrs. Mable Gould, and Miss Jeanette Westveer, assistants.

Mr. John J. Riemersma, Principal of Senior High School, Mrs. Irene Borton, assistant.

Mrs. Gladys Van Huis, assistant, Miss Bernice Bishop, Junior High School Principal.

PRELUDE

Melody of '53 — a nocturne of dreams and desires, a medley of happy times and busy hours. We laughed and lived to the lilting strains of music — the beating rhythm of our band marching across a football field, the ballads we waltzed to at sweater dances or formals, the hymns we sang in chapel. We cheered to the jazz of the pep band, thrilled to the overture of our play, sang to our "Alma Mater" with open hearts.

Yes, our school life begins and ends to the serenade of music. September comes and with it the shouts of recognition and trills of laughter as old friends meet; the cadence of feet treading unfamiliar halls. The year flows by in a symphony of work and fun, until, unbelievably soon, seniors march down the aisle. "Pomp and Circumstance" flows through the chapel into hearts reluctant yet glad. The year is gone — a fantasia of fun and fancy; four years of joy and sorrow step aside — the prelude to a new life has begun.

RECORDINGS

School Officers: Duane Carlson, Treasurer; Len Rowell, Chief-of-Police; Mary Sanger, Clerk; Dave Bos, Mayor.

With Mayor Bos as maestro this year, our fine student council members performed their best, as we, the music lovers, will testify. The first number was "football programs" and was followed by the exciting Football Festival, appropriately called "The World in Her Arms".

They thrilled us with the "Special to Benton Harbor", an experience we'll never forget, and continued their medley by introducing the all-school Christmas Party. They completely sold us on "book covers" and "season tickets," and concluded by inspiring us with the need to give to "The Infantile Paralysis Drive".

For their encores they really put across "Dutch Treat Week" (remember, girls?) and for the enjoyment of everyone, Career and College Day. Besides all of this they have been active participants of the Region Four Student Council. We could never completely cover the program but we do wish to give our congratulations and thanks to the 1953 student council for a job well done and wish to tell them what a "hit" they made with us.

Boomerang Board

What does it take to turn out a good yearbook? Let's compare it with composing a song. First comes inspiration! What more can we ask for inspiration than this school year? Memories of sports, parties, and school projects, but most of all—people.

Once you're inspired, the actual work begins; putting into words and music, as we've tried to do, all those fond memories. Now, we the composers, can only hope, that like a favorite song—the melody will linger on. . . . . .

FESTIVAL OF "52-53" A BIG SUCCESS

Children in Today's World, Theme for American Ed. Week

Rev. de Velder, Miles, Vander Jagt, Guests

The major theme for American Education Week this year was, "Children In Today's World." The topics dealt with were: their churches, their homes, their schools, their country, their opportunity, their heritage, and their future.

With the following help from many students and guests each day, American Education Week was a success.

Monday — Rev. Marion de Velder led in devotions and also talked on American Education Week. Dave Bos was chairman and explained the meaning of American Education Week. The evening program included the presentation of the patriotic exchange assembly after the parent-teachers conference

Tuesday — All students in Senior High took part in nominating a queen for the football festival. Morning Assembly was an Annual Armistice Day Assembly which included the band and choir. The guest speaker was Guy Vander Jagt.

Wednesday — Mr. Damson's class was in charge of the Chapel program. Wendell Miles, Ottawa County Prosecuting Attorney, was guest speaker.

Thursday — The Chapel program was presented by Mr. Marcus's class, which gave an interesting radio play, entitled, "Man Without a Country." Thursday night the coronation of the queen.

Friday—The last football game of the season, followed by a formal dance.

Republicans Win Mock Election

Senior High's mock election followed the general trend of the nation by voting a straight Republican ticket. Eisenhower won by a large majority capturing 529 of the votes with Stevenson taking 205. Thirteen votes went to the Prohibition Party and two to the Progressives. In the state election Fred Alger was elected to the Governorship, Clyde Geerlings was selected for State Senator, and G. M. Van Peursem for State Representative. Charles Potter was chosen for U. S. Senator and Gerald Ford, Jr. for Representative in Congress. Wendell Miles was chosen for Prosecuting Attorney in Ottawa County. The outcome of this election coincided almost exactly with that of the actual voters.

The election was sponsored by the Student Council who donated the money for the ballots.

Herald Staff—First row: S. Essenburg, J. Fisher, J. Ashburn, C. Jaehnig. Second row: M. Gronberg, M. Poest, J. Bos. Third row: M. Bruis, V. Hansen, L. Hower and W. Larsen. Also on the staff were J. Rypma and C. Serne.

Herald In Circulation Throughout the U. S.

The Herald is being distributed in many places of business this year. Doctor's offices, drug stores, furniture stores, clothing stores, shoe stores, hardware stores throughout Holland receive the Herald. The paper is also being sent to many different schools scattered through the United States. Such states as Illinois, North Carolina, Virginia, California, New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Kentucky, Maine, Wisconsin, New York, Washington, and Colorado are on the mailing list. A Herald is also sent to the Hawaiian Islands.

In return for the papers sent out a paper is received in exchange from many schools. The Herald staff also sends papers to colleges such as The Woman's College in Colorado, Hope, Michigan, Central Michigan College, Western Michigan, Michigan State, and Michigan Normal.

Students Awed By Reverent Program For Valiant Heroes

On Tuesday, November 11th, during 3rd hour, Holland High students were again privileged to attend the annual Armistice Day Assembly.

David Bos, our mayor, presided. The Senior High Band began the program with a Salute to the Services. Following this was the call and presentation of the colors. Flag salute and the singing of the National Anthem; led by Dave Bos, took place. After this came one of the most awe-inspiring parts of the assembly. This was the playing of taps and the echo, which preceded the silent tribute.

At this point the choir entered the program; with the very soft singing of "Nearer My God to Thee."

Our mayor then read the honor roll of boys who paid the supreme sacrifice for our country.

Next on the agenda the choir sang three beautiful numbers. Following this the band and choir combined their talent for the presentation of "The National Creed."

The address was given by Guy Vander Jagt, community ambassador to Europe. Mr. Vander Jagt, spoke on the subject, "They Fought for Peace."

A Narrator and the band were next, with "Musical Americana." The program concluded with the singing of "America the Beautiful."

The Armistice Day Assembly was, as, always, very effective and inspirational.

Coronation Begins Celebration; Game Followed by Dance

Crowds cheering, people scurrying about, everyone is making plans for the big event. These are all signs of the 1952 "Football Festival" that is now under way.

The festival opened November 14 with the coronation of the queen and her court. Mayor David Bos did a splendid job along with Albert Meyer who was the M. C. Those participating in the program should also be commended.

Today is the pep assembly which will get everyone in the spirit for tonight's big event.

Tonight the crowd will be cheering for one of the finest football teams Holland High has ever had. We hope that the football festival will be a complete success with a victory over Grand Haven. After the game there will be a dance at the Woman's Literary Club to which everyone is invited.

Mickey Poest, editor-in-chief of the Herald, whose job it was to meet those exacting deadlines.

Principal Talks to Students At U of M

Mr. Riemerama attended the twenty-fourth annual Principal-Freshman Conference held at the University of Michigan, November fifth and sixth. While there he interviewed the following graduates of the class of 1952: Guy Dunkin, Louise Kleis, Dwight Kraai, John Meyer, Herbert Pollock, James Pollock, Burke Raymond, and Hubert Weller.

On November fifth at 7:30 there was a round table discussion. All principals met to discuss with Deans of various colleges of the University.

November sixth from 8:30 to 12:00 student conferences were held.

Mr. Riemersma spoke with each student and was happy to learn that the students were doing very well scholastically in their work at Michigan.

Athletic Sisters

"Busy as bees" are the jacket-clad gals who sell refreshments at our football and basketball games, under the guidance of hard-working Miss Ver Plank. The proceeds go toward the purchase of athletic equipment.

Cheerleaders

"Yea, team!!!" is a familiar yell, and a reminder of the wonderful school spirit of this past year. Our pep-inspiring cheerleaders helped to make each game more thrilling!

Personnel Board

We've got your number! Yes, the personnel board has got your number. They have worked hard all year long to collect the records you have acquired during your high school years. These girls, under the supervision of Miss Reeverts, have really worked hard to keep your account in the books. Thanks is really in store for this group.

First row: Connie Haakma, Jean Kromann, Sherry Visser, Sara Jo Kleinheksel.
Second row: Carolyn Alexander, Jane Boyd, Ruth Rooks, Jayne Scully, Miss Reeverts.

Career and College Day

Want to be an air-line stewardess or an F.B.I. agent or maybe go on to college? Yes, it's Career and College day—an annual event devoted to helping you, the future leaders of America, decide just what your vocation will be. Orchids to this group of faculty members and students who have worked and planned so hard to make it a success.

First row: Miss Gaskins, Phyllis Brink, Marilyn Lam, George Moeke.
Second row: Mr. Buchanan, Miss Brower, Miss Wiskamp, Mr. Johnson, Miss Nelson, Blaine Timmer, John Klassen.

Historical Board

Assemblies, parties, and many other important events that have made the school year 1952-53 so wonderful, have been carefully recorded and placed in a scrapbook for safe-keeping by the efficient members of the Historical Board.

First row: Wanda Essenburgh, Jill Crawford.
Second row: Millie Borgman, Judy Rypma, Miss Brower, Phil Kruithof.

Future Teachers of America

Readin', Ritin', and Rithmetic — is what the members of the Holland High FTA (Future Teachers of America) Club are hoping to teach someday. This group is one of the newest additions to the club-world of Holland High. These juniors and seniors are studying problems concerning college preparation and a teaching career.

First row: Mary Meurer, Carolyn Alexander.
Second row: Mr. Marcus, Nita Van Lente.

Park Board

What could be lovelier than the beds of multi-colored tulips that enhance our school lawns during the "springy" month of May. The hard-working people who did all the planning of those beds under the able supervision of Mr. Hornbaker make up the Park Board.

Mr. Hornbaker, Eleanor Geerling, Sandra Tien, Carroll Nienhuis, Bill Van Oosterhout.

Assembly Board

No-Youg Park, Magrum the Magician, Pruth McFarlin and "pep" assemblies were just a few of the educational and entertaining programs that were scheduled by the Assembly Board. This committee, under the guidance of Miss Calvert, had the job of obtaining "paid" and "exchange" assemblies for your entertainment in 1952 and '53.

First row: Jane Schaafsma, Florence Becker.
Second row: Phil Ragains, Miss Calvert, Al Meyer.

Hi-Y Club

"Don't crack your head on that diving board!" This was Mr. Drost's favorite expression to the Hi-Y members when they took their monthly swim at the Y in Grand Rapids.

The Hi-Y club was organized this year with the new advisor and a few of last year's officers to help out with the club's schedule. A well balanced program of activities and educational programs rounded out the year.

First row: Ed Fuder, Phil Ragains, Lee Hower, president.
Second row: Ed Easter, Mr. Drost, Wayne Larsen.

H Club

This year's H-Club was really tops. The first project of the year was the sale of wooden shoes and megaphones, followed by a bake goods sale. In March the H-Club sponsored the Intra-mural All-stars vs. Teachers basketball game. The success of all these projects helped to make it possible for the H-Club to purchase a whirlpool bath for the athletic department.

First row: Mr. Shearer, Jerry Victor, president.
Second row: Mr. Stuits, Dave Bos, Blaine Timmer, Ron Boeve, Jack Kempker.

Police Board

"Stick 'em up bud, you're under arrest!" Seriously, these hard-working "cops" give the do's and don'ts for Holland High. We wish to pay tribute to the members of this group who have planned and worked out, so well, the rules of our school through the leadership of Mr. Buchanan and our Chief of Police.

First row: Jack De Bree, Paul Duey, Len Rowell, chief.

Pan American Club

Vive la fiesta! With this cry ringing through the halls of our school, the Pan American Club put on a most exciting and spirited carnival. Besides the carnival, the club took part in many interesting and fascinating activities. Through these, Miss Wiskamp led her Spanish students to a greater understanding of our American friends.

Mary Gronberg, Ken Brummel, Ed Fuder, Rick Linn, president, Miss Wiskamp.

Girls League

"Going, going, gone! Sold to the junior in the 1st row!" The Book Exchange, sponsored by the girls league, affords all students with the opportunity of trading old and new books for their usage through the year.

Donna Borr, Millie Borgman, Miss Wiskamp, Carolyn Alexander, president, Elaine Botsis.

The Jr. Red Cross is composed of high school students working with the Red Cross. Through the annual collection, members are able to attend conventions, to help childrens' homes by making toys, and to cheer hospitalized veterans with records and books. Their present sponsor is Beth Marcus.

Sherry Visser, Rog Garvelink, Judy Houtman, Florence Becker, Stan Harrington.

Librarians

When you hear the word "librarian" you probably think of some stuffy old maid. Not so in H.H.S. When you bring back your overdue book, you might be lucky enough to pay your fine to one of the smiling girls of this group or perhaps you'll be greeted by their cheerful supervisor, Mrs. Donivan.

First row: Beverly Moomey, Shirley Miller.
Second row: Dorothy French, Alice Kalman, Shirley Smith, Helen Vander Haar, Sally Range, Marcia Sterenberg, Mrs. Donivan, Carol Dobbertin, Sandra Decker.
Third row: Joyce De Ridder, Sara Jo Kleinheksel, Judy Koning, Norma Harbin, Audrey Baumann.

Welfare Board

The cheery card or beautiful flowers sent by the Welfare Board are sincerely appreciated and long-remembered by those who receive them in time of illness or sorrow.

First row: Barbara Klomparens, Julie Smith.
Second row: Mr. Buchanan, Elaine Reinink, Miss Wiskamp, Mrs. Donivan.

Chemistry Club

$CH_3CH_2CH_2CONH_2$? ? ? Whatzat, you say? It's a formula, natch, just one of the chemicals you might "meet up wif" if you happen to join the newly organized Chem Club under the direction of Mr. Wilbur Johnson.

First row: Jean Kromann, Sara Jo Kleinheksel, Ruth Rooks.
Second row: Mr. Johnson, Barb Van Putten, Mary Gronberg, Phil Ragains.

The houselights dim, an expectant hush fills the air, excited whispers ripple through the audience as the curtains slowly part, revealing the magic world of the stage.

New York? Broadway? Chicago? No, the scene was the Holland High School auditorium. Under the truly brilliant direction of Miss Ruby Calvert a cast of twelve presented "Double Door" by Elizabeth McFadden on the nights of February 16, 17, 18, and 19.

The players and director put in many long and grueling hours of rehearsal, but the "unsung heroes" of the theater world must not be forgotten. Those were the people who constituted the ten committees that made it possible for the play to be presented; the business, publicity, program, ticket, progress, music, auditorium and balcony ushers, corridor supervision, and production staffs.

To those who witnessed it, and to those who participated in it, the senior class production of "Double Door" was one of the most outstanding events of years past, and of years to come.

Forensics

The long sessions of practice after school began in February and continued until March when the local contest was held. Liz Ver Hey, Marla Essenburgh, Jane Schaafsma, Faith Rusticus, Elaine Botsis, Dave Dykstra, Merwin Van Doornik, Geri Skorske, Dick Klann, and Connie Tuinsma were chosen to enter the district contest. The last five all won first places and entered regional competition, where Dave Dykstra and Geri Skorske won firsts.

Forensics is divided into various groups. Their identification starts with the top picture.

The talented beginning speakers who wanted to improve their speaking ability by working on "Oratorical Declamations," were Dave Dykstra, Liz Ver Hey, Sandra Dressel, Jane Klaasen, Barbara Dillberg, Helen Wade, Carol Luth, Myrna Cook, Betty Heidema, and Mary Lou Van Putten.

As they are given their topic of any current event of the day and a limited amount of time to prepare it, Dave Bos, Bill Butler, Al Timmer, Gretchen Himes, Faith Rusticus, and Merwin Van Doornik have to keep up on the latest news.

With the facial expressions, dialects, and talent for putting jokes across, Geri Skorske, Iris Vanden Bos, Mary Lou Bagladi, Barb Van Putten, Cynthia Schaap, Ardith Naber, Marla Essenburgh, Sally Damson, and John Angus put on a wonderful show in the Humorous division.

Excerpts from famous plays and stories were expertly performed by Len Rowell, Joyce De Ridder, Mary Ellen Bowman, Donna Hooger-hyde, Gayla Davis, Judy Rypma, Pat Boyce, Delores Oonk, Mary Sanger, Elaine Botsis, Jill Crawford, Sara Jo Kleinheksel, Julie Smith, Phil Kruithof, Dick Klaan, Ruth Rooks, and Pearl Raak in the Dramatics division.

Gathering information for weeks, writing a speech, memorizing it, and finally giving it—is plenty of work, but Jane Schaafsma, Rog Garvelink, Ken Brummel, Connie Tuinsma, Mary Lou Hindert, Mary Gronberg, Mary Avery, and Mark de Velder did a fine job in Original Oratory.

The Holland High School Band has just completed a busy, reputation building year. After traveling over fifteen hundred miles on trips, people all over have come to know and respect the work of our fine band.

Beginning the year was a trip to the Chicago Music Land Festival at Soldiers Field in August. The band played before eighty-five thousand people—truly a great thrill and honor.

In the fall, the group backed the football team at every home game and traveled with spectacular pageantry in their half-time shows to Muskegon Heights, Grand Rapids Catholic, and by train to Benton Harbor.

Then the clinics, solo and ensemble festivals in Grand Rapids, and those trips to Muskegon and Ann Arbor for the Band and Orchestra festivals, where each were rated very high.

Suddenly came Tulip Time with the endless parades and gay color—the climax of a wonderful year for the band.

Enough tribute cannot be given to Mr. Art Hills and his assistant, Granville Cutler, for their excellent directing of a superior band. We are very proud of these fine musicians and not surprised to hear Mr. Hills has been asked to participate at the Interlochen Music Camp again this summer.

Magazine Campaign

"The Greatest Show on Earth," theme for the annual magazine campaign, proved to be a very appropriate slogan for the class of '53. The whole-hearted efforts of each senior contributed to the tremendous success of this project. These ambitious salesmen topped any previous class by selling $8,146.74 worth of magazines. Due credit should be given to the class patrons, Prof Hansen, Miss Calvert, and Mr. Damson under whose expert leadership the senior class of '53 has profited so greatly.

The spirited competition which arose from this campaign did a great deal to stimulate and, in the end, to achieve such fine results. With the north side pitted against the south side, the traditional battle for top sales honors was closely fought.

Finally, however, the powerful south side won, claiming the winning prize, "Blinkie," the clown, while the north side received "Intoxication," the little skunk.

"Prof" looking the matter over with managers Al Meyer and Geri Skorske.

Step, brush, hop!
One, two, three, together!

Over three hundred girls offered their time and effort; dug in, and really did a bang up job with this year's dutch dance.

Equipped with four to ten pairs of socks and one pair of unyielding Klompen, they started practice in early March.

A great deal of credit should be given these gals who've worked so hard, and to their chief, Miss Keller, who has labored patiently and endlessly coaching her charges.

Cooperative Training

"Earning while learning" was the motto of students who participated in the Holland High School Co-operative Training Program, headed by Mr. Wiegerink. These trainees were getting a head start in their future positions. They acquired the necessary skills, knowledge, and "know-how" in getting along with people, while attending school. The seventy-seven co-op students in '52-'53 have worked in such fields as sales clerks, nurses' aides, mechanics, farming, office work, and telephone operators.

Secretary and the boss: Donna Borr, Mr. Wiegerink.

On the Job: Carl Visscher. Isla Mulder, Sally Lievense, Shirley Essenburg.

Football Festival

The night—November 11,—the time 8:00 P.M., "The World In Her Arms," is in full swing.

Yes, Queen Joanna reigned imperially over the 1952-53 Football Festival with her court, Geri Skorske, Norma Harbin, Mary Sanger, and Phyllis Brink.

Festival festivities began with the coronation of Queen Joanna on Thursday evening. The next afternoon, the queen and her court were presented to the student body and a pep assembly of various acts followed. The game with Grand Haven that evening was followed by a delightful Homecoming Dance at the Literary Club. Our loss of the game was the only event to mar an otherwise perfect Festival.

Horizon Club

To just about every girl horizon meant a get-together with the gang every other Thursday night. They met to discuss matters of the day; helping at the hospital; working on special projects—such as securing food baskets to give to some needy family for Thanksgiving and Christmas; and working on scrap books for bedridden children. As the main wish of every girl is to be more attractive and to develop a pleasing personality—many meetings were devoted to helping each girl reach this goal.

Of course there were many parties. Hayrides, sleighrides, treasure hunts—all events never to be forgotten.

A highlight of this year was when the girls were privileged to honoring the National Director of the Camp Fire Girls at a tea.

Representatives of each group met once a month to plan sweater dances, special teas, and the Christmas Formal. This event was one that was looked forward to by all the boys as well as girls for months ahead of time. After the girl decided who she would like to spend that glorious evening with and gathered up enough nerve to ask him—then came the task of finding that certain formal that would make her look as though she just stepped out of "Vogue." The night finally came and was just like you read about in stories, and oh yes, that beautiful corsage! Remember—wasn't it fun!

Varsity Football

Holland High rebounded from a poor season last year to compile an impressive record of five wins, three losses, and one tie this season, one of the best in recent years. Coach Shearer, in his first year as Varsity coach, and "Ned" Stuits, his able assistant, sparked the "Dutch" to a fine season.

Thirteen of the thirty-seven boys who made the team in late August were veterans of last year's team. Jerry Victor and Carl Visscher were co-captains this season and both handed in stellar performances. Paul Mack and Blaine Timmer were elected co-captains at the end of the season for 1953.

Some of the highlights of the season were the receiving of all-state honorable mention by Carl Visscher and the naming of Jerry Victor to an all-state second team. Also, our defeat of a scrappy Cadillac team after an upset last season, should be considered a highlight.

The following boys played their last games for Holland High School this season: Ed Raak, Carl Visscher, Terry Burns, Jack Kempker, Dave Bos, Jerry Victor, Tom De Pree, Ken Lubbers, Ron Boeve, Roger Israels, and Warren Kievit.

Holland High's reserve football team had lots of spirit and enthusiasm even though they lost all their games this year. They had fun and learned how to work together. They showed good sportsmanship and we wish them more success in the future. They elected Carl Ver Beek and Jim Boeve as co-captains for the season.

Varsity Basketball

The most impressive season in the history of Holland High was registered by this year's varsity — a season marked by victory after victory and by record making statistics.

This "terrific" team racked up seventeen wins with only two losses — each lost by one point! Our only defeat during the regular season was to Grand Rapids Central, but we later romped over them two games in a row. Until we bowed out to Grand Rapids South in the quarter-finals, we sailed along on a 13-game winning streak — the longest in our history.

We are very proud of this 13-man squad. Due to their fine teamwork, one of them was able to bring home special honors. Dean Vander Wal, our high scorer, set a new record by making 33 points against Creston in the Regional finals at Kalamazoo. By the end of the season, he had made an average of 19.7 points per game. His playing was "tops" and he made the top, being singled out for All-State honors!

The boys that made up this year's team had played together since grade school. They shared the Southwest Conference championship with Muskegon when playing on the reserves in their sophomore year. By winning the regional trophy this spring, they brought to a fitting climax their many years of excellent ball handling and teamwork.

Our varsity averaged 60.3 points per game while holding our opponents to 48.9 per contest. As Coach Weiss would say, "That's good scoring in any man's league."

A wonderful team, a wonderful coach, and a fine season. Again we knocked at the door to the State Championship Throne Room, only to lose by one point. This brings back to mind the heart breaking game with Highland Park last year. However, in the minds of every Holland supporter is the knowledge that our team was second to none.

Coach Bob Connell's reserve basketball team ended the season with a 6-9 win-loss record. The boys lacked height this year but made up for it by being the hardest fighting team coach Bob ever led.

Little Bill Sandahl, who played guard with Dwayne (Tiger) Teusink and Bob Saunders, paced the team by putting in 132 points for the season. Bill also was elected honorary captain by his team-mates. Closely following Bill for top honors were forwards Jim Van De Wege with 118 and Hank Visscher with 95. Tiger Teusink led with his free throw percentage of 65.7% and shot percentage was held by Jim Van De Wege with a high of 39.2%.

Guards Phil Boersma, Terry Gentry, Rog Doolittle, and Jim Boeve also were very active. Other forwards who were high scorers as well as good rebounders were Jerry Boeve, Elwood Plaggemars, and sharp shooter Dave Dykstra.

Athletic Council

In general, the purpose of the Athletic Council is to encourage, promote, and supervise an inter-scholastic athletic program for the Holland Public Schools.

Members consist of the superintendent of schools, the athletic director, the junior high and senior high principals, all coaches of interscholastic sports, faculty sponsors of the Girls' Athletic Association and the Athletic Sisters, the mayor of the high school, one member of the Board of Education, and a representative from the community at large.

Spring Sports

BASEBALL

An outstanding group of lettermen returned to spark Coach Stuits' baseball team this spring. Although the season was fair, the veterans as well as the "spirited" newcomers gained valuable experience in sportsmanship.

TRACK

Our track team, coached by Mr. Shearer, while not having an outstanding season, deserves much credit for their fine sportsmanship, their determined efforts, and hard work.

GOLF

From a nucleus of last year's letter winners, a good, hard-working golf team took shape under their new coach, Mr. Hornbaker, and played a successful season.

TENNIS

This year's tennis team, coached by Joe Moran, was made up of a host of returning veterans. This well-balanced group strongly advanced, and was able to hold their own in their 15-match schedule, and the regional and state meets which followed.

CROSS-COUNTRY

Last fall's cross-country team, coached by Mr. Buchanan, won three and lost two meets during the 1952 season. The hi-lite of the season was the brilliant running of Ron Den Uyl. Ron won every dual meet he entered and took second place at the state meet held in Ypsilanti. It took hard work on the part of all the boys, however, to give the team its victories of the season.

Girls' Athletic Association

"Come dressed as a song" was the word around school as G.A.A. put on its first big party of the year; prizes going for the best costumes.

Besides this, bowling was introduced this year as a regular sport, as well as the "old timers," volleyball and baseball. Tournaments were held to determine which teams would hold the "champion" title. Of course, the ever-popular tennis can never be forgotten.

Another big project was the sale of the red and white balloons at the football Festival; profits going to the annual Honor Banquet held in the spring at which awards are presented to deserving girl athletes.

Behind the scenes of all these activities was Miss Joyce Keller who devoted so much time to supervising the games and parties of the only girls' sports organization in H. H. S.

Four horsemen

Mr. Prins, Building and Ground Superintendent, has charge not only of Holland High but of all our public schools. He has been with us for seventeen years, is married and has three children.

Mr. Oosterbaan, a maintenance and repair man in H. H. S., for two years, is married and has three children. He is an archery fan and a lover of horses.

Custodians

Mr. Van Putten is fairly new around H.H.S. being here only about a year. He is the man you see working so hard on our lawns around the school, gardening being his specialty. He is married and has two children.

Mr. Woudstra, better known as "Sid", has been with Holland High for nine years. He married a graduate of our school and they now have one child. Sid supervises the construction and operation of the stage, besides doubling as fireman and repairman. We all know that he is a very willing worker at all the dances and parties.

Mr. Bouwman has been here for four years. He is married and the proud father of eight children. He works as a fireman and on repairs, besides devoting time to night work here. As a sideline, he is a barber, having been in the trade for twenty-five years.
